From Pastor Laura

A fact of life for an Interim Pastor; it is a life of relatively quick comings and goings.

The aurora forecast is updated daily at midnight UTC.

On a professional level, with great fanfare, Bishop Cedrick D. Bridgeforth appointed the Rev. Dr. Charles Ensminger as Pastor of Kunéix Hídi Northern Light United Church in Juneau, Alaska beginning July 1, 2023. (see letter on next page)

I am so pleased with the great work of the PNC working with the uniqueness of KHNLUC's dual heritage. In recent history there has been a leaning towards Reformed Ministers serving here.

On a personal level, my daughter, Lydia, has moved to Juneau. She is currently enjoying all the variety of activities that Juneau has to offer. It's wonderful to have her company.

Towards the end of the month, I will be taking a week's vacation to visit Los Angeles.

February 19th, 2023

To the members and friends of Kunéix Hídi Northern Light United Church:

Grace and peace to you all! I am writing this letter to share with you that Bishop Cedrick Bridgeforth intends to appoint the Rev. Doctor Charles Ensminger as pastor of Kunéix Hídi Northern Light United Church beginning July 1, 2023.

This appointment was made in consultation with the PNC as they engaged in their search process on behalf of the congregation and has been affirmed by the leadership of the Northwest Coast Presbytery, by the church's staff parish team and by the bishop of the Holston Conference, the Rev. Deborah Wallace-Padgett.

Pastor Charles brings over 25 years of pastoral leadership experience serving primarily in the Holston Conference of the United Methodist Church, his most recent appointment being at Allen Memorial in Athens, Tennessee. He completed his BA at Tennessee Wesleyan, and received an M.Div. as well as an M.A. in biblical studies from Drew University. His doctoral work was completed at the Methodist Theological School in Ohio. Charles has also served as an adjunct professor in the Religion Department of Tennessee Wesleyan since 2001 and he has authored several books. Charles will be accompanied by his spouse Cindy Ensminger who is a licensed Marriage and Family Counselor with a Master's degree from Seton Hall in New Jersey.

We ask that you please share this news with the congregation on Sunday, February 19th.

As of this reading, this news is only for your family of faith. This information is not public and should not be shared on social media until it is announced in an appointment express email from the Bishop's office. That email will almost certainly be sent on Monday morning.

In this time of transition we pray for Pastor Charles and Cindy and we also pray for God's grace and abundant blessing on the Rev. Dr. Laura Krauss. As a conference we want to express our deepest thanks to Pastor Laura for her gracious leadership of the congregation in her ongoing role as Interim Pastor. What a delightful gift she is to us all!

May God's spirit bless you, keep you and uplift you. We pray that your congregation will continue to grow from strength to strength. We give thanks for your faithful witness and the many ways you engage in ministries of love and justice here and afar.

Blessings and prayers for all that lies ahead!

Rev. Christina DowlingSoka, 423-202-5143
Alaska Conference Superintendent

Turning Ideas into Words into Images into a LOGO

Are you interested in helping develop a new logo for Kunéix Hídi Northern Light United Church? A focus group is working with a graphic artist, “zsquaredstudio” to create a logo and we seek input. Using a “world café” group process we are going to dream and develop ideas, words and images for a possible logo. (any questions, call Pastor Laura (310) 265-9810)

MAUNDY THURSDAY SUPPER CLUB

We are celebrating Maundy Thursday with a Supper Club, a chance to break bread together and be nourished through fellowship.

You can sign up to host or to be a guest. Sign up online at www.khnluc.org/fellowship

We'll put together groups, based on the hosts' capacity, dietary restrictions, etc. Supper clubs will receive an email with the host and guest list, so you can coordinate the time, place, menu, etc. We'll also provide sample prayers and Scripture readings for you to share.

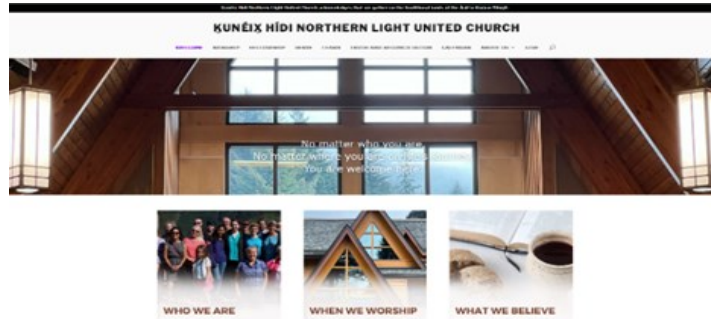

For more information, email Kate Burkhart at jaymiekate@hotmail.com.

Sign up by March 27 at <https://khnluc.org/fellowship/> or by calling the church office.

We have a new website and email!

KHNLUC.org

Last year, we started working with James Alborough of Bear Star Web Design in Haines to refresh the church website. James was able to clone the excellent content that Jane Ginter and others created for our previous website, and then provide a more modern design. Several folks from the Healing Task Force and Council attended workshops hosted by the Presbyterian Church (USA) to learn key elements of digital communication through websites. Based on that training and James's expert advice, we have an easy to use and update website.

The website is designed around the idea that people come to KHNLUC.org to find out:

Who are you? Where are you? When is the worship service?

You'll see this most clearly on the home page. From there, information is organized around:

- our values and belief as a unified church, United Methodist and Presbyterian Church (USA);
- when and how we worship together – and how to be part of the service;
- how we minister to the community and world at large – and how to get involved;
- opportunities to grown in faith and learning;
- when and how we gather in fellowship; and
- our commitment to truth and reconciliation, healing and reparation.

Our website launched earlier in February. You may have noticed that you arrived at khnluc.org when you went to nluchurch.org. We have a seamless transition to the new site. Church emails will also transition to @khnluc.org. We encourage you to update your address book with pastor@khnluc.org, office@khnluc.org and moderator@khnluc.org.

The website is designed primarily to engage and encourage people to be part of our church life and family. If you have ideas to improve, expand, or correct the content, please contact Kate Burkhart at webmaster@khnluc.org.

It's been wonderful to have the Chancel Choir singing for the congregation.
The choir rehearses on Wednesday from 5:30 – 6:30 pm in the sanctuary.
Come join us!

Which Jeff??

Our wonderful Custodian, John Maddox, was recently trimming some strings from the upholstery on the pews. Flat on his back, he was able to view some graffiti produced most likely by one of our youth, 35 years ago.

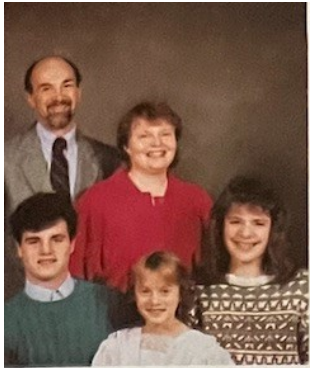

him a call. He's living in Norfolk, Virginia and is a scientist serving in the Navy. He is a PhD Aerospace Experimental Psychologist, with the rank of Commander. He is concerned with safety issues and mishap investigations. He will reach 20 years of service next year and will retire and probably move to Florida, where his wife's family lives.

Geoff Alter's response:

The writing is underneath the pews. Geoff notes then that should be noted it's much different than writing on the top lol. I remember fixing the pew cushions by stapling underneath at youth group. I don't remember writing that but it's possible. Although GOD rules that is not my hand writing. As for me, I am a carpenter and fisherman like the son of man was. I was recently baptized again and enjoy studying the Bible as well as stoic philosophy. Currently I am a student at UAS. I am a sociology major and interested in the field of drug and alcohol counseling. I am deeply concerned in how drugs are affecting us all.

Our Youth Group is meeting again on Sunday nights, led by Kristy Becker Germain, and although we don't encourage graffiti, we are happy to have young people back enjoying being together in the church.

Which Jeff was there in December 1988, scribbling under the pews?

When I asked Jeff if he could have written the graffiti, he said he doubted it very seriously. He said he would have been horrified to do something like that.

Looking back at our church photo directory from 1989, we have two young people named Jeff: Jeff Grubb and Jeff Alter. Jeff Grubb would have been 15, Jeff Alter would have been about 16.

Somewhat embarrassingly, I can definitively say that I didn't write that... because the penmanship is legible. On the subject of family, here's me, Mom, and my son, Ryan:

I decided to get in touch with those Jeffs and see if I can figure out this mystery.

Kunéix Hídi NLUC Council reorganizes for 2023

At its February 9 meeting, the Church Council thanked Council members whose terms had expired (Kelly Henriksen, April Rezendes, and Bernadine DeAsis) for their service and commitment to the Congregation. Special gratitude was also shared with retiring Council Moderator Kate Burkhart and retiring Clerk April Rezendes for their service during the last year.

Newly elected Council members (Laura Doogan, Linda McCargar, and Margaret Pugh) were welcomed to the Council. Returning Council member Margaret MacKinnon was thanked not only for her past 3 years of service but also welcomed for the next 3 years, given her re-election to the Council at the Annual Meeting.

Jim Alter was elected to be the Council Moderator for 2023, while Margaret Pugh was chosen as the 2023 Council Clerk. Maxine Richert was chosen as Vice Moderator and Susan Bus as back-up Clerk. Other individuals chosen or re-affirmed in their respective roles were:

- Jean Ann Alter     The Church's United Methodist Delegate
- Maxine Richert    The Church's Presbytery Commissioner
Liaison to the Staff Parish Relations Committee
- Jane Ginter        Membership Secretary
- Susan Bus          Liaison to the Social Justice and Concerns committee
- Alan Akiyama      LIAISON to the Committee on Property Management
Member of the Investment and Endowment Committee
- Jim Alter            Liaison to the Finance Committee
- Nico Bus            Congregational Representative to the Finance Committee
- John Pugh           Congregational Representative to the Finance Committee

Pencils

Where did the pencils in this box come from?

For many years, I've replaced worn-down pencils in the pews with sharpened pencils. The pencils in the box you see here come from somewhere else, though. I have also replenished the pew envelopes and noticed sometimes the envelopes don't fit well in their slots.

Why? Pencils are being stashed in these slots for the envelopes! How many pencils? Up to five pencils! Almost every slot had at least one pencil, and many others had two, three, four, and up to five pencils. And sometimes candy wrappers and a little note. No money, though!

It took a bit of effort to clean out all these pencils. I wonder how many years some of these pencils have been hidden? This box represents the right side of the sanctuary. I hope to clean out the stray pencils from the left side of the sanctuary before Easter.

- Jane McMillan Ginter

(by the way, I've included this statement in my pre-written obituary: "She was known for sharpening pencils and washing windows.")

Help with Spring Cleanup! Saturday, March 25 & Saturday, April 1

We'll have a church-wide cleanup day on Saturday, March 25 and Saturday, April 1 to get the church looking great before Easter. You can come to the cleanup day or choose a task to do on your own time. We'll make it a fun day of satisfying work.
